A mail coach is now attached to the canon ball train from Kansas City to Carthage, which adds greatly to our mail facilities. 'Rah for cousin Jay.

Ex-Sheriff Atkinson expects to have some railroad news in about two weeks. The surveyors are now making out maps etc. of the survey he says.

That double wedding we spoke of in our Saturday's issue, will take place about Wednesday next, so our marriage barometer tells us. Pass the cake around, please.

We wish they would do something with Guitau. We are so blamed tired of the business we don't know what to do; but then what would become of the sensation editors?

Shobe & Courtney sold on yesterday to Mr. Hali of Illinois, a pair of mules for three hundred dollars, cash. Mules will bring the skads when everything fails. That's so.

We haven't heard of anybody being killed in Kansas City for a week. Come, that won't do. Chicago is waking up. She's a lively critter in the murder business, you know.

Owing to the wreck of a coal car on the road between Butler and Adrian Monday night, the express train was detained at the latter place five hours waiting for the track to be cleared.

Franz Bernhardt has sold one-half of his business house on the north side to Hugo Sigmond for twenty-seven hundred and fifty dollars. 'Rah for Hugo. Marrying makes a man of a fellow, don't you see.

Will the capitalists of Butler allow the present opportunity of getting the C. & A. road like shadows pass them by out of sheer inactivity and want of pluck and enterprise, is the great question now to be decided?

We publish to-day the first installment of dead-beats, who cannot get goods of us under any circumstances, and other merchants can profit by our experience with them.

A. L. McBride & Co.

The express train going south on the L. & S. Saturday night, was fired into by some unknown party between Adrian and Archie. The shot passed through the window just above the heads of two Butler gentlemen.

Mr. James M. Scott, a prominent citizen of Elkhart township died on Monday of pneumonia at his residence. He was a good citizen, father and husband, and his loss will be severely felt. His remains will be sent to his old home in Illinois for interment.

A great desideratum in the preparation of medicine is that it should be palatable without losing its efficacy. This is the case with Prickly Ash Bitters, and being graded as regards their cathartic properties they are better adapted for general use than any other similar article. A trial will convince the most skeptical. no6-1m

Mr. A. J. Sites, of Ohio, purchased of W. S. Griffith a farm lying in Shawnee township. The new comers to Bates are all men of nerve, enterprise and money, and they will soon develop its resources. Come on gentlemen, we welcome you with open arms.

The Daily Journal-Democrat prints more reading matter than any country daily in the State. But the other fellows all scoop us on "ads."

You are right, Cruce. You do quite well considering that you live in a country village, with a branch office somewhere else. We wish you a bushel of good luck, old fel.

A man by the name of Small recovered six thousand dollars the other day in Brooklyn New York, for the loss of his wife. A pretty good price for that piece of ornamental household goods. A Mormon could realize a big fortune out of such affectionate investments. It's better than C. & A. Railroad stock. We are shouting.

The mammoth advertisement of Levy & Co.'s mammoth dry goods and clothing establishment can be easily seen in our Daily issue to-day and the Weekly. You should examine their statements in reference to every department, for some of those days you may want something in that line and then you will want to buy it where your money will go the farthest. Take our advice now and read carefully Levy's "ad" and profit there by.

The religious people of Adrian will give a festival in the new church at that place on Thursday evening Jan. 26, 1882. A TIMES reporter was in that city Monday and observed a wonderful amount of stir among the ladies more particularly. Arrangements have been made for some excellent music, and every other feature calculated to make the occasion enjoyable has been attended to. It will be the grandest occasion of the kind ever given in Adrian.

Tyro vs. Eureka.

VIRGINIA, Jan. 21st, 1882.

EDITOR TIMES—The contest between the Tyro and Eureka Literary Societies held at the Virginia school house Saturday night January 14th, was a grand success, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather there was a large and appreciative audience present. At the close of the exercises the judges rendered their decision as follows:

Tyro—Debate and Oration.
Eureka—Declamation and Paper.
Which was virtually a defeat for the Tyro's, they being the challenging party.

WEDDED TO LAURA—She was beautiful, he loved her devotedly, and happiness seemed to pervade their every act. But trouble came. Sickness paled Laura's blooming cheeks, dulled her sparkling eyes, enfeebled her constitution, emaciated her beautiful form, unstrung her delicate nerves, and unfitted her for active life. With an aching heart her husband consulted doctors, administered their medicines, and talked with friends. Notwithstanding all this care and attention, there appeared no relief for her aching head, that painful back, that irregular uterine action and that emaciation. Another friend called who had seen such sickness, and at once suggested the use of Dr. Dromgoole's English Female Bitters, as he had known it to cure similar cases. Her husband procured it at once, and placed her upon its use. He had the satisfaction of seeing Laura restored to health again. 8-2w
